L Legrand cable management rack 632787 is designed to organize and manage cables in home or office environments, featuring either a 12-position or 24-position network cable organizer in a compact 19-inch 1U form factor. It supports various patch panels, including Category 5e and 6, and can accommodate power, network, and telephone cables, making it suitable for both professional workstations and home setups. Key Features: 12- or 24-slot cable management for neat organization Durable, high-quality plastic construction with non-slip and abrasion-resistant properties Modular expansion options for additional cable management rings Easy installation with detailed instructions, compatible with standard 1U racks Supports routers or small switches in larger slots for tidy setups Pricing Overview: While exact prices vary by retailer and region, TCL Legrand 1U cable management racks generally range from $30 to $70 USD.

Online marketplaces like Taobao, Amazon, and Newegg offer these racks, sometimes with discounts or bundled options. Prices may fluctuate based on shipping, import fees, and local availability. Recommendation: For the best deal, check multiple online retailers and consider whether you need the 12-slot or 24-slot version, as the larger capacity may cost slightly more.
